> NEW MARE'S NEST DISCOV ERED.

An article published in another column of THE GAZETTE shows that a fight is being made upon Senator Maxey for his vote upon the bill to prevent the importation of laborers to this country under contract. One needs not to expect absolute fairness in an important political contest. No one can, therefore, be sur prised at the springing of such charges against Senator Maxey as may endanger THE GAZETTE has the largest many motives that lead to newspaper attacks upon public men, especially when raised those men are before the public for reelection. I am willing to work, but depression of times, and situated in an unfavorable field for female labor, I find myself in straightened circumstances, and my greatst desire being to educate and rear my children to be cultured, moral and useful to society. I appeal to your generosity to contribute what you feel able to lend to the Lord by giving to the widow and orphans. My husband, in offering his life on the altar of law and order, had implicit confidence that his widow and orphans would not want while their lot was cast among the noble people of Texas, and, having faith in his judgment, I cannot believe that the wolf will come to my door when the good people of Texas know I am needy.
